2007 Reunion Weekend

Members of the classes of 1952, 1957, 1962, 1967, 1972, 1977, 1982, 1987, and 1992 returned to campus for Reunion Weekend 2007 during the third weekend of August. Over 125 alums reunited with old classmates, family, and friends. The weekend featured a golf tournament, CLE, wine tour, family BBQ, cruise on Lake Coeur d'Alene, and mass. Alumni had a wonderful opportunity to renew old friendships, reminisce about time spent at Gonzaga and celebrate classmates' successes. Special recognition was given to the class 1957, who celebrated 50 years!

Gonzaga's Outstanding First-year Class

By Susan Lee

On Tuesday, August 14, Gonzaga University School of Law welcomed 207 incoming 1L students. These students were selected from a competitive pool of 1,631 applications, which represents a two percent increase over last year's applicant pool. While this increase appears modest, it must be viewed in the context of decreasing law school applications. In the Northwest region, applicants were down 7.1% this year; nationally, applicants were down 4.3%.

The entering class represents considerable geographic diversity. Our new students are from 32 states and 87 undergraduate institutions. Consistent with the trend in recent years, our out-of-state student population continues to grow. Two-thirds of the 2007 1L class comes from outside Washington State, an increase of 57 percent over a year ago.

Our commitment to building an increasingly diverse community remains strong. Our goal is to increase the number of underrepresented students including both women and students of color. Nine percent of incoming students self-identify as ethnically diverse, a one percent increase from last year. Women comprise forty percent of the class, a three percent decline. Enhanced diversity creates a more vibrant and enriching community, and we will continue to emphasize this critical area in our recruiting efforts.

The median Law School Admissions Test (LSAT) for this year's entering class remained strong at 154, with the 25th percentile at 153 and the 75th percentile at 157. The academic achievement of our incoming students is strong as well, with a median cumulative GPA of 3.34. The GPA at the 25th percentile is 3.06 and the 75th percentile is 3.54.

The 1L class of 2007 is one of the strongest entering classes in the history of Gonzaga University School of Law. They bring to our institution an impressive record of academic achievement and a wide variety of life experiences. We look forward to the impact they will have on this law school over the next three years and to all that they will achieve in their professional lives. 🌟

James E. Rogers Law Student Scholarship Initiative

The James E. Rogers Law Student Scholarship Initiative provides an excellent opportunity for Gonzaga Law School to attract and retain a high-caliber student body. Mr. Rogers' scholarship initiative is a three-year commitment and partnership, with matching gifts, which requires the law school to engage law alumni and friends who are equally dedicated to our mission of educational excellence. We want to take this opportunity to publicly acknowledge those who have financially supported the James E. Rogers Law Student Scholarship. Thank you.

in MEMORIAM

The Gonzaga University School of Law extends its deepest condolences to the families and friends of the following alumni and friends.

Eleanor J. McCarthy, J.D. 1982

James P. McNally, Sr., J.D. 1954

Howard M. Nichols, J.D. 1978

James R. Rosamond, J.D. 1950

Ray V. Sullivan, J.D. 1951

John Paul Ferlazzo
(February 8, 1976 - July 10, 2007)

John Paul Ferlazzo, a graduate of the Class of 2005, died in an automobile accident in Flagstaff, Arizona on July 10, 2007. He was 31.

John was born on February 8, 1976 in Bologna, Italy, while his parents were teaching and studying there. He graduated from Sinagua H.S., earned a B.A. from the University of Arizona and a J.D. from Gonzaga University School of Law. John was employed in Flagstaff as an attorney for the firm of Hufford, Horstman, Mongini, Parnell & Tucker, and was a practicing member of the Arizona Bar Association and the Navajo Bar Association.

His loss is deeply mourned by numerous friends, and by his parents Paul and Carole of Flagstaff, his brother Michael of Tucson, his former wife, Cheyenne and her daughter, Chynna, his grandparents Richard and Mary Sheedy, aunts, uncles, and numerous cousins in New York, Maryland, and Kentucky.

John's funeral service was held on July 16, 2007, in Flagstaff, and was attended by approximately 300 people. This large turnout was just a small reminder of how many lives John touched and his positive impact on all those around him. John's Gonzaga Law School classmates in attendance were Spencer T. Moore ('05) and Jared C. Lockwood ('05).

John was always charismatic and friendly. He was well-liked by his fellow law students as well as by the faculty and staff at Gonzaga. John touched many people during his three years at Gonzaga. He was active throughout the law school, including his work with the Gonzaga University Legal Assistance clinic, through which he provided public legal support to low-income Spokane citizens.

John's tragic death comes as a great shock to all members of the Gonzaga Law School community. John was a good son, a good father, a good attorney and a good friend. He will be profoundly and sincerely missed.

Condolences may be sent to John's family at:

For a Limited Time IRA Legislation May Help You Support Gonzaga University School of Law!

Between now and December 31, 2007, The Pension Protection Act provides an opportunity to make tax-free IRA charitable gifts!

Consider this:

If you are age 70 ½ or older, you may transfer any amount up to $100,000 from your IRA to Gonzaga University. By contacting your IRA custodian you can transfer tax exempt money directly to the university. The transfer will satisfy your required minimum distribution in whole or in part. The gift is not included in your income as an IRA distribution. The best part is the gift is made tax-free!

For more information contact Nancy Fike, Gonzaga University School of Law Development Office (509)323-3605 or Gonzaga University Planned Giving Office at (509)323-6141 or (800)388-0881.

"I've been contacted by a number of our alumni about the IRA opportunity. For those who qualify and wish to make a contribution, this is a very, very good way to do it. At least through the end of this year."

What's new? Did you move? Change Jobs?

Keep in touch with your former classmates, professors, and friends by sending us your professional, and personal news for publication. Please make sure the news you submit is accurate, complete, and legible. Include a picture if you wish.

If you have information you would like to submit for Class Action, please send it to:
